The Travel and Entertainment Club traveled to the Winter Garden Theatre on Saturday, December 15, 2012 at 8 PM to see the professional Christmas Play titled “A Christmas Survival Guide.” It was a good, fun Holiday play and a great treat for a few hours as a reprieve from all that we do as we approach Christmas. Tickets were $29.00 per person. However, as we had 16 join us, tickets were obtained at a group rate of only $22.50. Reservations at the local Tai restaurant across the street were made at 6 PM before the play to give us time to walk around the historic downtown area first and see the Christmas lights. We ate there last time and it had excellent food at reasonable pricing.

“Armed with a copy of A Christmas Survival Guide and an optimistic attitude, the characters charge into an urban holiday landscape searching for the true essence of Christmas. In songs and vignettes, they learn to cope with the season in ways that are hilarious and heartwarming.”
